Prior to the shareholders meeting, shareholders may likewise exercise their rights to grant proxy and to vote remotely in the terms provided in the sections of this notice below titled "Right of Representation" and "Remote Voting Prior to the Shareholders Meeting."

i) In-person Attendance at the Shareholders Meeting

At the entrance to the place where the shareholders meeting will be held and in order to verify the identity of shareholders or their validly-appointed proxies, commencing an hour prior to the time the meeting is scheduled to be held, shareholders and proxies who wish to attend the meeting in person should present attendance cards issued by one of the depositary members of the management

ii) Remote Attendance at the Shareholders Meeting

Pursuant to the provisions of article 11 of the Bylaws and article 12 bis of the Shareholders Meeting Regulation, the Board of Directors has resolved that shareholders and their proxies may likewise attend this ordinary shareholders meeting remotely, in the following terms:

a) Identification and prior registration of shareholders or their proxies, if any.

Shareholders or shareholder proxies who wish to attend the shareholders meeting remotely may register to do so, in advance, from the date of the publication of this notice, but no later than 12:00 pm on June 26, 2023, using the computer program provided for that purpose on the corporate webpage (www.prisa.com), confirming their identity through one of the following: (a) electronic National Identity Card (DNIe); (b) recognized or advanced electronic signature issued by the Spanish Public Certification Authority (CERES) of the Fábrica Nacional de Moneda y Timbre; (c) other means of identification authorized by the Board of Directors that guarantee that the shareholder will be duly identified. Shareholders should likewise fill out the form provided for that purpose, including information necessary to verify their shareholder status or, if applicable, the proxies status. Prior registration of attendees outside of the term shown above will not be allowed.

So that proxies may attend the shareholders meeting remotely, in addition to the foregoing, they must demonstrate to the Company that a shareholder has granted them proxy by any of the means referred to in the section "Right of Representation" of this notice.

The Company reserves the right to require shareholders or their proxies to provide any additional means of identification deemed necessary to confirm their shareholder status or, if applicable, the proxies status, and to confirm their authenticity. The Company may also provide additional means of identification that guarantee that shareholders and proxies are duly identified.

b) Connection and attendance.

Shareholders, or proxies, who have previously registered to attend the shareholders meeting remotely as indicated in section a) above, should register and connect to the remote attendance platform on the day the meeting is to be held (expected to be held on June 27, 2023) between 9:00 a.m. and 11:45 a.m., identifying themselves through any of the means listed in section a) above, and following the instructions provided. Only those attendees who have connected remotely within the timeframe shown above will be allowed to intervene and/or vote at the shareholders meeting.

c) Participation.

*English translation for information purposes only.
In case of discrepancies between the Spanish original and the English translation, the Spanish version shall prevail*

Pursuant to the provisions of the Capital Companies Act, those attending remotely who at the shareholders meeting intend to intervene or present legally-permitted proposed resolutions or requests for information concerning matters set forth in item iii) of the section on "Information Right" in this notice, should send them to the Company in writing via the remote attendance platform between 9:00 a.m. and 12:00 p.m. on the day the shareholders meeting is held (expected to be held on June 27, 2023).

If the shareholder or his proxy wants the minutes of the meeting to literally reflect his intervention, he should state that expressly in the text of that intervention.

Requests for information or clarifications from shareholders or their proxies attending the meeting remotely will be answered either verbally during the meeting or in writing within seven days after the meeting is held, pursuant to the provisions in that regard in the Capital Companies Act.

d) Voting.

Shareholders or their proxies who attend the meeting remotely may cast their votes on the proposed resolutions contained on the agenda via the remote attendance platform, from the moment the shareholder or proxy connects until the Chairman or Secretary of the meeting announces that the period for voting on the proposed resolutions on the agenda has concluded.

Concerning the proposed resolutions dealing with matters not included on the agenda which, if applicable, have been presented in legally admissible cases, remote attendees may cast their votes via the remote attendance platform from the moment that the Chairman or Secretary of the meeting read the proposals to be voted and the remote attendance platform is opened, until the moment in which they declare that the term for voting on the proposed resolutions is closed

e) Other Matters.

With all due guarantees, the Company may adapt these means, to enable shareholders who are non-Spanish residents, qualified investors, and similar persons to attend the shareholders meeting remotely.

Shareholders (or their proxies) bear the exclusive responsibility for procuring the necessary means of identification required to access and use the remote attendance facility.

For all legal effects, remote attendance on the part of a shareholder shall be deemed equivalent to attending the shareholders meeting in person.

The Company reserves the right to take pertinent measures concerning the mechanisms for remote shareholder meeting attendance when technical or security reasons prevail or so require. The Company shall not be liable for any detriment to shareholders or proxies arising from breakdowns, overloads, drop outs, lost connectivity or any other similar event beyond the Company's control that may occasionally prevent remote shareholder meeting attendance or occasionally render the web page unavailable, without prejudice to adopting the measures that each situation may require, such as possibly temporarily suspending or extending the ordinary shareholders meeting if necessary to ensure shareholders' and proxies' full exercise of their rights.

iii) Priority Rule and other questions.

The in-person or remote attendance at the meeting of any shareholder who previously granted proxy or voted remotely prior to the meeting, regardless of the method employed, shall render that prior grant of proxy or voting null and void.

Likewise, in-person attendance shall render remote attendance void.

In the case of jointly-held securities, the first owner to register shall be deemed the attendee and, thus, any subsequent registration shall be denied to the remaining co-owners. In that regard, and pursuant to article 126 of the Capital Companies Act, the co-owner who is first to register (in person or remotely) shall be deemed to be the person designated by the remaining co-owners to exercise their shareholder rights.

In the case of legal entities, the entity in question should notify the Company of any change or revocation of the powers granted to their representatives and, thus, the Company declines any responsibility until it receives that notification.

RIGHT OF REPRESENTATION

Any shareholder may grant a proxy to another person, even if not a shareholder, to attend the General Shareholders' Meeting, by satisfying the requirements and formalities set forth in the Company's Bylaws, the General Shareholders' Meeting Regulations and by law.

A proxy may be evidenced in any of the following documents, in all cases with a handwritten signature: (i) the attendance card issued by the custodians participating in Iberclear, (ii) a letter, or (iii) the standard form made available by the Company for these purposes to the shareholders, as indicated in the section "Information Right" of the present call. The proxy must contain or attach the Agenda.

If a proxy is granted in favor of the Board of Directors, or if the proxy does not state the name of the person to which the proxy is granted, it will be understood to have been granted to the Chairman of the Board of Directors or, if applicable, to the person chairing the General Shareholders' Meeting, as set forth in article 8.3 of the Shareholders Meeting Regulation.

Unless otherwise stated by the represented shareholder in the document granting the representation, the delegation of power also includes the proposals regarding the items not envisaged in the agenda.

If, in accordance with that stated above, the delegation of power includes the proposals regarding the items not envisaged in the agenda, the precise instructions from the represented shareholder shall be understood as the proxy voting in the sense that he/she deems to be most appropriate to the interest of the shareholder, unless other express instructions are stated by the represented shareholder in the document granting the representation.

If proxy is exercised by the directors of the Company, in the event of a public request for representation and if the grantor has not expressly indicated voting instructions, it shall be understood that (i) the proxy refers to all the points on the Agenda of the General Shareholders' Meeting, (ii) the vote is in favor of all the proposed resolutions made by the Boards of Directors, and (iii) the proxy comprises any other items that may arise in the course of the General Shareholders' Meeting not included in its Agenda, being understood that the proxy holder shall vote in the sense it deems to be most appropriate to the interests of the shareholder.

The directors may also have a conflict of interest regarding the proposed resolutions, if any, which may be proposed regarding matters not included in the Agenda (when relating to the removal of a director or to the request of liability).

If the designated representative is the Chairperson of the Board or any member of the Board of Directors, is in a conflict of interest and has not received precise voting instructions, he/she will be replaced as representative by the Secretary of the Board of Directors. If the Secretary is also in a conflict of interest, he must refrain from voting on the matters that, having a conflict of interest, he must vote on behalf of the shareholder. In accordance with article 8.6 of the Shareholders Meeting Regulation.

The possibility of delegating the vote to the Chairman of the Board is recalled.

Proxies are always revocable, and proxies granted by shareholders who vote remotely prior to the shareholders meeting or who attend the meeting in person or remotely will be deemed revoked.

A proxy granted by remote electronic means of communication must be in the possession of the Company, at its headquarters, at least 24 hours in advance of the time contemplated for holding the General Shareholders' Meeting on first call. Otherwise, the proxy will be deemed not granted. After the indicated period, only proxies granted in writing that are handed to the company's security personnel in the place and on the day of the General Meeting and before it commences, will be valid.
